

COUNTY POINTS.

MAYSICK.

The present rains have greatly benefitted the crop.

Miss Myall has returned home after an extended visit through Central Kentucky.

Miss Sallie Smith, of Hutchison Station, K. C. R. R., is the guest of Miss Myra Myall.

The wheat crop of Messrs. James and John Dye made a yield of thirty-five bushels to the acre. They had about thirty-five acres.

W. W. Ball and Miss Julia Lovell, of Maysville, made a social visit here last week.

A team attached to a threshing machine belonging to Caywood and McLean while moving from one field to another on W. T. Pogue's farm became frightened and ran off completely demolishing the machine and injuring the horses.

Dennis Fitzgerald the Democratic nominee for jailer accompanied by Squire John Ryan, of Washington, was here Monday circulating among his friends. Mr. Fitzgerald received the nomination as fair as any one and surely no true Democrat will fail to vote for him.

On Monday night we had the hardest rain that ever visited this section doing great damage to the wheat and oat crop.

J. A. Jackson and son have a few more of those splendid gum tobacco suits left and are offering them at remarkably low prices. Every tobacco grower should have one.

ROMEO.

WASHINGTON.

Misses Nellie Wood and Tillie Henry contemplate a trip to Paris and Cynthiana very soon.

There will be communion service held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, conducted by Rev. E. E. Ervin.

Miss Sallie Marshall, of Fleming county, attended the fete at Wm. Durrett's; also Misses Johnson and Richeson, of Maysville.

The old fifth with John Lane at the head is sold for Dennis Fitzgerald and reform.

Miss Belle McCray a charming young lady from Missouri, will visit the family of Mr. Needham Parry soon.

There was a small negro child drowned in the well on Squire Ryan's place last Friday.

George Taylor has just put up an awning in front of his store door.

Dennis Fitzgerald candidate for jailer was in to see us on Monday under the wing of uncle Joe Forman.

There is no estimating the damage done by flood Monday night, it was higher than ever was known before.

HEATHCOTE.

MURPHYSVILLE.

Threshing wheat is the order of the day.

Parties looking for musical talent, either vocal or instrumental, would do well to visit this town.

Robert Gault, son of Esquire E. L. Gault, is slowly improving from a very serious attack of malarial fever.

The recent rains have been a great benefit to the tobacco and corn crops.

We have four candidates for magistrate in this precinct.

H. S. Brookings and J. W. Prather, have returned from the Queen City. They disposed of their crops of tobacco at an average of over $20 per hundred.

The present prospects for a tobacco crop in this precinct is very discouraging at present. There will not be a half crop let the season be ever so good, but the prospect for a good corn crop is very flattering. The wheat crop here is over an average, those that have threshed their wheat say it will yield twenty-five bushels per acre, and clear of smoot, cockrell and cheat. A good many farmers have sold at $1.00 per bushel.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

Mud! Mud! Mud!
Mrs. Dr. Heaton and family have returned from a visit to relatives in Fincastrle.

Miss Jessie Hood is visiting Misses Ella and Mary Hood.

Misses Sophie and Annie Reidle left on Monday for Mt. Ore to attend the Brown County Teachers Institute, in session there.

Miss Carrie Jones is slowly convalescing.

The Band of Hope initiated ten members Monday night.

Mr. Joseph Benington has returned from a visit to his parents. He was accompanied by his sister.

A number of persons were disappointed by the moonlight fete being postponed.

The rain did much damage in this place. There were four colored persons drowned above town.

A Royal Visitor.

On Saturday, August 5th, there will be a great commotion, the citizens of Maysville and the people of our county, will have the pleasure of seeing the famous show known as Myers & Shorb's Big United States Circus and Menagerie, combined with the New Great Eastern Circus, Museum and Racing Balloon Shows. This is the identical institution which took all Chicago by storm this Spring and which has been delighting the people of Canada for the past sixty days. The Chicago Times says: The circus company is the best we ever saw in this city, and the superb leaping in which the loud trumpeted champion of the Barnum show fairly out-leaped himself. The best rider of the Melville family rode splendidly, the entire company from our stand point, seems to have been selected from the very best circus talent in the land. A fine Menagerie of many rare wild animals including a genuine Hippopotamus attracted much attention, the show as a body gives general satisfaction, if we can judge from the immense patronage bestowed upon this elegant circus. Over two thousand people were turned away again last night, the vast pavilion refusing to accommodate. We would advise ladies and children to visit the afternoon exhibitions, and avoid the crush at night.
